

Lower Ponds Council.

The Know Nothing brethren at Lower Ponds Council, in this county, seem to have been in great trouble for the past few days.

They met last week for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Convention which is to be held in this city on Saturday next, to select candidates for the various offices to be filled in August.

They got along very smoothly until they undertook to instruct their delegates who to vote for for some of the offices, and then the row commenced.

The office for which there was the greatest contest, was that of Marshal of the Chancery Court, and on this office there was a perfect explosion—the Council being so equally divided that both sides claimed the victory, and neither was willing to give back.

When the vote was taken the result was announced as being in favor of Mr. Delph, by a small majority. This astonished the other side, as they supposed they had the mugs all well set, and that they had Delph dead beat.

A reconsideration was consequently called for—speculations were made—and the re-consideration was carried.

A second ballot was then gone into, and the ballots being duly canvassed, it was announced that the majority was in favor of Dent Whipple.

There was a trump! The Delph men were for a time non-plussed, and the highest sort of a storm was raised. Fierce words and fierce looks agitated the harmonious brotherhood, and for a time the Council almost realized Byron's picture of "hell broke loose."

But this was the result of the ballot, and it was vain to "kick against the pricks." The Delph men at last, however, rose from their seats and indignantly left the Council room, declaring that they would "hereafter act and vote as they pleased."

And thus the matter stands. Dent Whipple is the nominee of that Council, and about one half of the brothers are in a state of positive rebellion.

It may probably be interesting to our readers to know the reason for this fierce division in Lower Ponds Council. We will inform them. That Council was originally made up of about equal numbers of Whigs and renegade Democrats, and the number is yet pretty equal of the old parties. This it may be supposed would have no weight with these new-light politicians; but it is a mistake—theLocofoco part of the concord still has a great affection for their concord, and the Whigs still venerate their old Whiggy.

Here sprang all the difficulty. Dent Whipple had been a Locofoco, and Delph had been a Whig. The apostate Democrats ranged themselves on the side of Whipple, and the apostate Whigs on the side of Delph—and the contest was as bitter as ever had been the contests of these old parties. Neither would bend—neither give way—and the Locofoco having the majority, the Whiggy sneaked from the Hall, vowing death and destruction.

And this is to be the result of all such dishonest and corrupt co-alignments of men of opposite views—and thus may it always be with the renegades and traitors.

The Chancelleryship.

The question of the Chancelleryship of this city, is yet undecided. Enough cannot be ascertained from the delegates to the Convention which is to meet next Saturday to say who will be the nominee. Enough however has been learned, to render it pretty certain that Judge Piffle will not get the nomination. It is one thing to "stop to conquer," and quite another thing to "stop and win." Judge Piffle "stopped to conquer," but he also "stopped and lost." We understand that he has not the remotest chance of a nomination, and that his prospects for the Chancelleryship are as gloomy as are the prospects of civilizing the flat-headed negroes of Africa.

From all we can learn, there is a disposition on the part of many of the delegates to throw overboard Haggard, Logan, Worthington and Pilcher, and to take a new man. Who that new man will be, we do not know. The friends of Mr. Haggard, however, insist that he has a majority in the delegation, and they are very zealous for him.

The Convention meets next Saturday, and then the story will be cold.

CITY COURT.

TUESDAY, May 6.

Philip Hart, abusing his family. Bail in $300 for three months.

Wm. Kels and Mary Hurley, drunkennes and disorderly. Discharged.

Peter Murphy, drunk ordinance. Judgment confessed and fixed $5.

Henry Stankroth, assault on Samuel E. Rogers. Bail in $200 to answer a misdemeanor.

Com'th v. Louis Dutcher vs. Sebastian Martin, per warrant. Own recognition in $500 for six months.

Same by Joseph Keating vs. Dennis Ryan, peace warrant. Own recognition of each in $300 for six months.

Our distinguished Know Nothing friend, John P. Bracken of Palatka, formerly Senator from Knox county, and lately editor of the Somerset Gazette, was in the city yesterday. He does not know much about the Mountains now; and we judge from his taciturnity on the subject of politics, that Know Nothing is a lost ball in his right.

As a consequence, within two months and two weeks, through his influence, and the city and Mill's mill yesterday, was precipitated something terrible. Fortunately neither of the persons was injured, and only one horse slightly. The party were from Louisville, and were probably over on this side a Maying for the products of the Tennessee valley.—Louisville Courier.

That is not the only cause, and is more imaginary than real. Louisville has a market, and a good one, for nearly all the products of this section of the State, and she would soon supply all, if she were taken there for sale. The people of Western Kentucky will not trust us with a city high up in the mountains, and we have no place of market here for the products of the Tennessee valley.

You are mistaken, Mr. Editor, about that being a bottle of brandy. It was a bottle of cologne, which the ladies took along to use in passing through the New Albany.

The Democrats of Anderson county held a meeting on Monday the 25th of April, and appointed delegates to the District Convention which met at Springfield on the 14th of May. They recommended George W. Kavanaugh as their choice for Circuit Judge.

We learn from the Harrodsburg Courier, that apprehensions are felt that Mr. James D. Hardin will run as an "independent" candidate for Circuit Judge in that district. We hope for Mr. Hardin's own sake that he will not place himself in such a attitude. He has a right to do so if he wishes; but if he does, we hope every Democrat in the district will exercise the right of voting against him. He is a man of fine talents—a good lawyer, and would make a good Judge; but he certainly has not yet to learn at this late day, that "order is Heaven's first law," and this "order" is at this time essential to the interests of the country.

Nothing aspirants are busily engaged in, during the absence of Rachel in America, is deserted her colors and mounted on his martial arm the favors of a Madame de Plessy; a charming comedienne who combed him for the absence of his celebrated mistress. The tragic scene was eclipsed by the comic, and when Rachel returned she found that the public had deserted her for Ristori, and the Prince had forgotten her. She was to be the Queen of the world, and a Whig candidate for the Presidency—a true national Whig—I would either co-operate with the Democrats for the single occasion, or re-organize the Whig party for the President and a national candidate for the Presidency.

She preferred the latter mode of success, and decided to go in old 1601 who has a very short lease of life and a long purse. She will make an excellent wife—during her leisure hours.

For St. Louis.—The boat of all boats—the Southerner, in command of Capt. Geo. W. Tripplett, starts to St. Louis at 12 o'clock to-day from Portland. If you want to travel fast and pleasantly, and live like fighting-socks, take a trip on the Southerner.

"She walks the waters like a thing of life, And seems to dive the elements to strike."

Mr. J. B. Archer, whom all the ladies love, is Clerk of the Southerner; he is just the man to travel with—attentive, polite and accomodating.

Lord Clarendon is said to have remarked in conversation: "I have concluded a peace in Paris; I will now go back to London to see what I can do in the way of renewing the war."

A speaking match came off at Monticello on Monday last, between Hon. Sherrod Williams and Shelby Stone, against the American party, and Col. E. T. Bramlette and E. L. Vanwinkle, Esq., in defense of the same.

The price of license to retail liquor in Demopolis, Alabama, has been raised to $10.00. Liquor must command a high price down there.

Robert Story sells at auction some valuable real estate, commencing at 3 o'clock, K. M. this evening. See advertisement.

At a regular meeting of the Falls City Hook and Ladder Company No. 8, held May 5th, 1856, it was

Resolved, That we go into active service under the United Fire Department forthwith.

G. H. DUTCHER, Sec'y of P. C. H. & L. Co. No. 8.

MESSRS. MITCHELL & HUBBARD received on Monday, by the Nashville Railroad, ten car loads of pig iron from Potterson, Moore, & Co., of the Union Furnace.

ANOTHER NUGGET.—Five more negroes escaped from their owners in Covington, Sunday night. Two belonged to Jas. S. Lewis, one to B. Elliston and two to a Mr. Hatch. Nothing has been heard of them.

WE are glad to be able to state that Dr. Ronald, who it was feared was seriously injured by falling into a cellar on Sunday, is pronounced by his physician, Dr. Durritt, in a fair way of recovery.

A slave belonging to Mr. A. C. Burnley, disappeared from Frankfort a few days since. It is supposed he was murdered and thrown into the river, as his was found in the river.

It is said that Mr. Thomas Barry is about to wed a lovely English girl who is attached to the Boston Theatre. Her name is Clara Biddle.

THE larger best man still continues to increase in this city. It is supposed that as much is now consumed on the American, as on the German side of the Rhine.

FOR CINCINNATI.—The high-headed Jacob Straider, Capt. J. Blair Summers, is the passenger for Cincinnati at 12 o'clock to-day.

FOR NASHVILLE.—The steamer Southern connects at Smithfield with the fine steamer Rock City, for Nashville. Passengers for the Cumberland river will find no better opportunity. The Rock City is a star packet—good accommodations and clever officers.

TECUMSEH'S SON.—The Washington (Texas American) says that "Black Cat," the only living child of that famous Indian Warrior, Tecumseh, with a few of his followers, is encamped in that neighborhood. He wishes to start a trade between Washington and the Indians on the Reservation. The American says he is an intelligent fellow, speaks English intelligibly, and prides himself on his integrity.

THANKS TO THE OFFICERS OF THE SOUTHERNER FOR FAVOR.

THE ladies of Charleston, South Carolina, have raised $16,500 for the purpose of erecting a monument to the memory of John C. Calhoun.

THE new Legislature of Connecticut meets at New Haven to-day. A spirited canvass for United States Senator in place of the Hon. Isaac Toucey, is in progress. The rival candidates suggested are the Hon. R. S. Baldwin, Hon. James Dixon, and the Hon. Francis Gillett. It is thought that the election will take place early in the session—as the Senator question will engage the attention of both Houses until settled.
